

MUSEUM MAP

Orca (Killer Whale)
Cachalot 1900
Length 4.00 m

INFORMATION FOR YOUR VISIT

Museum of Natural History
University of Oxford

MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY, UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD

Exhibition Gallery

Our series of special exhibitions on contemporary research.

British birds

Discover Britain's incredible birdlife, from warblers to wetland fowl.

History of life

Starting here, the outer gallery is a whistlestop tour of 4 billion years of life.

Evolution

Discover evolution: how organisms adapt to a changing planet.

Modern animals

Learn about animal species we share our planet with today.

Insects

Pollinators or parasites? Find out more about these incredibly diverse animals.

Ellen Hope Gallery

Visit our newly renovated Ellen Hope Gallery, dedicated to British insects.

Dinosaurs & reptiles

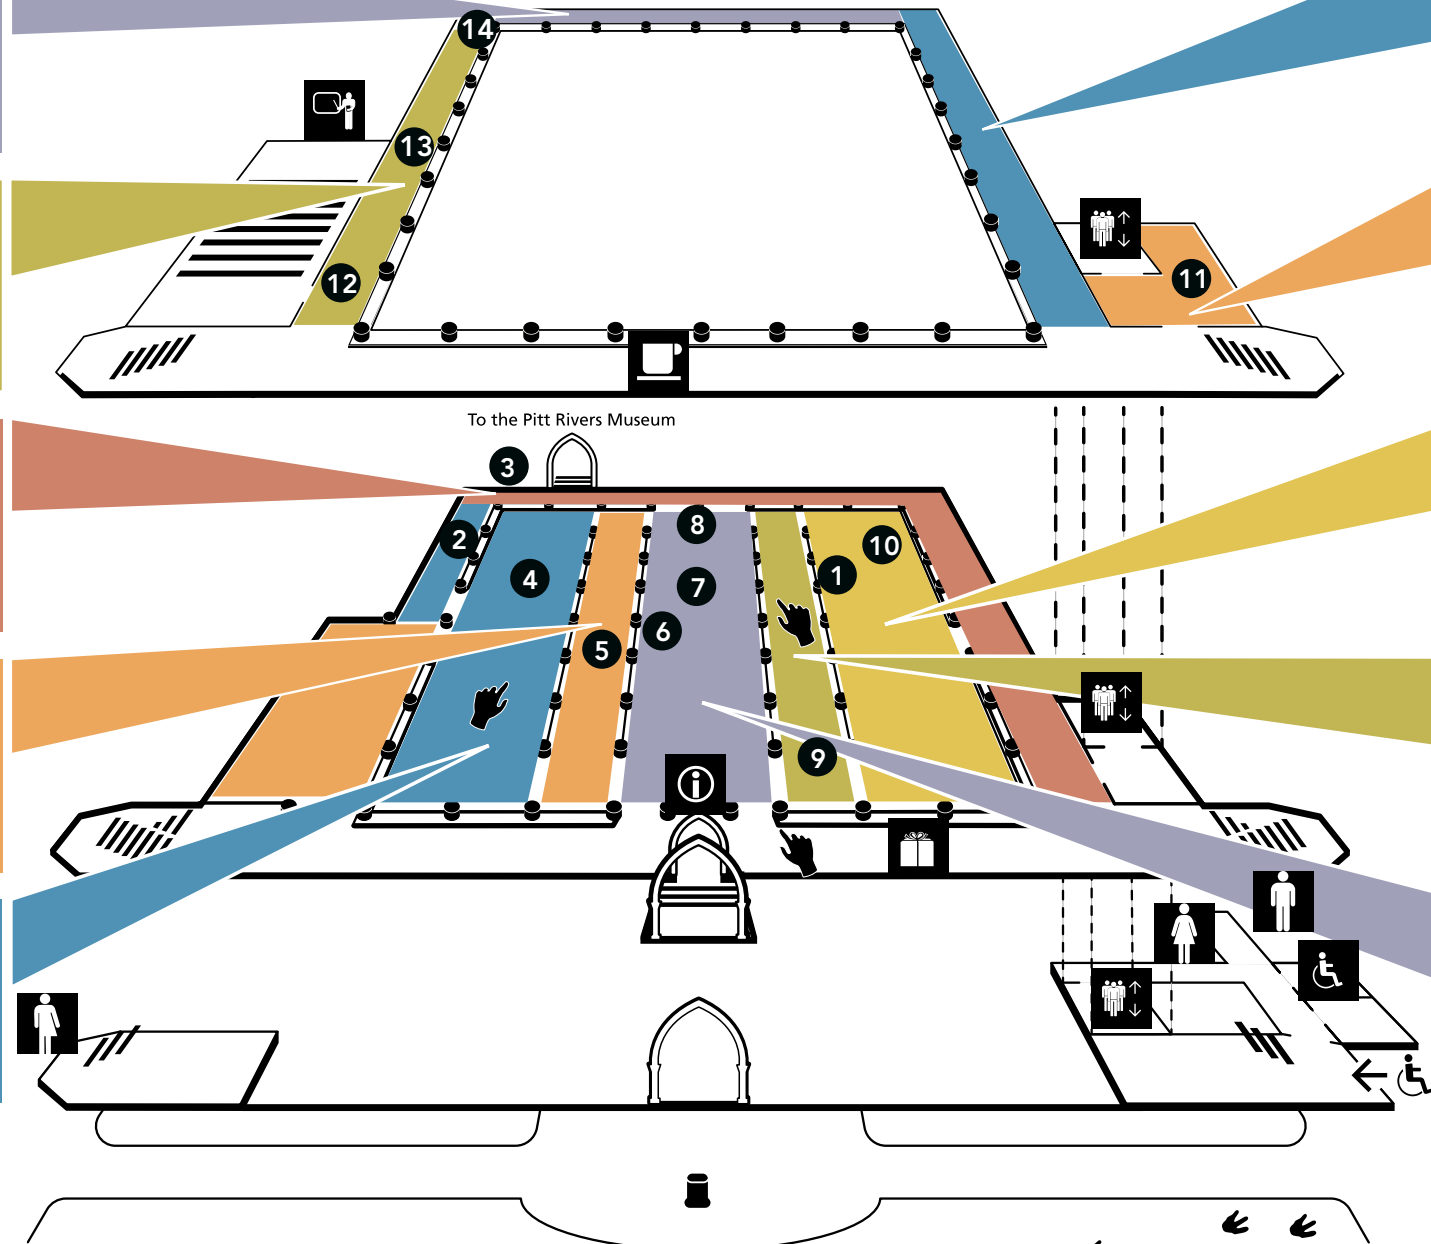

Meet extinct animals and see fossils found in Oxfordshire.

Earth

What can we learn about Earth from rocks and minerals beneath our feet?

Biodiversity

Marvel at the variety of life and find out how organisms are connected.

MUSEUM HIGHLIGHTS

1 Megalosaurus

2 'Red Lady' of Paviland 3 Trilobite wall

4 Skeleton Parade

5 Whale skeletons

6 Japanese Spider Crab 7 Tyrannosaurus rex

8 Darwin statue

9 Nantan meteorite

10 Out of the Deep

11 Bee hive

12 The Oxford Dodo

Audioguides

Our online audioguides are available in nine languages:

English, 官话,
Italiano, Español,
Français, Deutsch,
Polski, Português,
اردو

Scan below...

13 Red Kite

14 Precious stones

Museum of Natural History, University of Oxford
Parks Road
Oxford
OX1 3PW
01865 272950
www.oumnh.ox.ac.uk
info@oum.ox.ac.uk

@morethanadodo