

CLIMATE JUSTICE MUSEUM LATE NIGHT

Museum of Natural History | Friday 6 June, 7–10pm

TIMED PROGRAMME

Ground Floor

7pm to 7.30pm

The Thames Robe Procession

A procession of the Climate Choir Oxford and Grandfather Thames, wearing the Thames Robe, by artist Anya Gleizer

Starts near T. rex ★

Lecture Theatre (First Floor) B

7.15pm
(to 8.00pm)

KEYNOTE Climatologist
Professor Friederike Otto on her new book Climate Injustice

8.10pm
(to 8.40pm)

Film and poetry: Researcher
Akosua Paries–Osei in conversation with writer Yvonne John

8.45pm

Poetry by Geographer and poet
Zoe Brown

9pm

Spoken Word by local poet
Andrew Jones

9.20pm

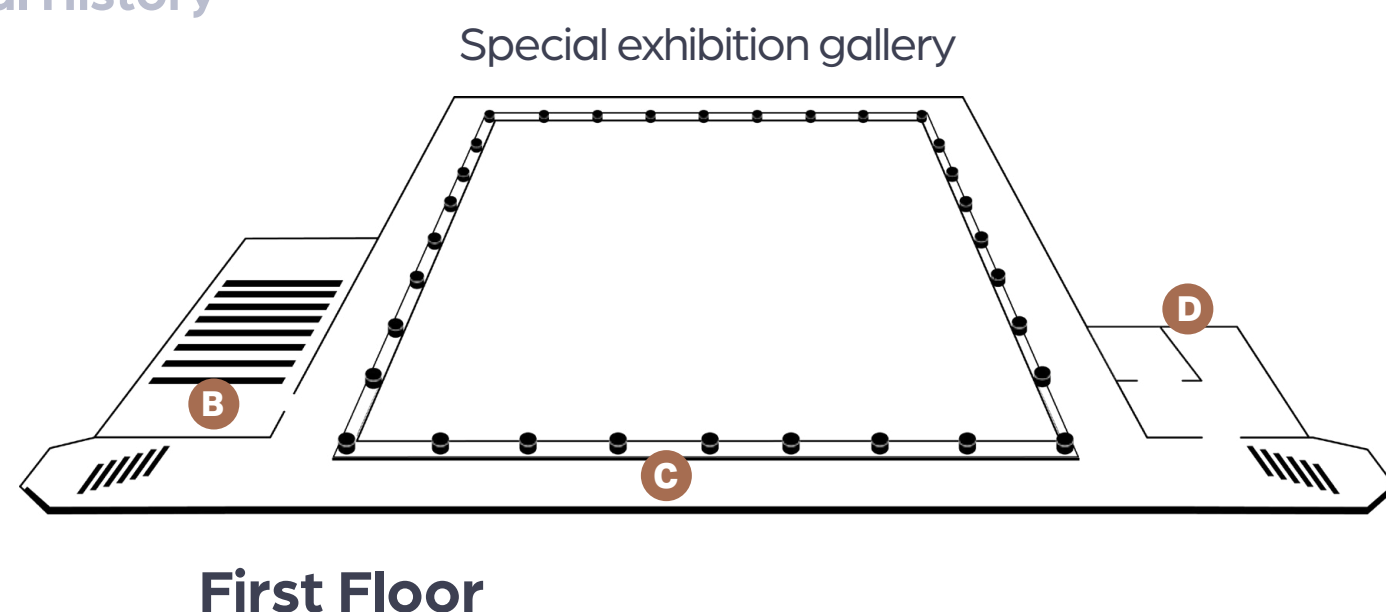

Spoken Word by local poet Rawz

9.35pm

Songs from Chrissie and the Skiddle Witch by Geologise Theatre

FLOOR PLANS

Museum of Natural History

Ground Floor

DROP-IN ACTIVITIES

First Floor

NORTH AISLE

Games & Crafts

1 Extinction Kerplunk

Think you've got what it takes to survive? (game by Leoni Biggenden)

2 Downstream Pollution with Emma Noble

Join for a show and tell on downstream pollution and coral reefs

3 Wasps and Climate Change

Chat with researcher Eliza Mogollon Perez

4 Monitoring insects with Robin Hutchinson of CEH

The importance of long-term monitoring of insects and climate change

SEMINAR ROOM

A Workshop:
Deep Sea Empathy
with Noemi Duroux

CENTRE AISLE

Water Conservation

5 Friends of the Thames

Learn how uniting communities along the river from source to sea is helping build a shared understanding of its health

6 River Action

Understanding River pollution and River Rescue Kits

7 Marginalia Song to the River

Film that explores the river and its wildlife in a time of increasing land pressure and climate change, by Bevis Bowden

8 Thames Valley Wildflower Meadow Restoration Project

Chat with conservationist Catriona Bass

WELCOME DESK

9 Tours
Sign-ups and start point

CENTRE AISLE

9 EarthWatch Oxford

Learn about projects that bring greenspaces to our cities, put nature back into farming and promote water management

10 Tamesis Unweaving

A creative workshop about memory, water equity, and emotional responses to the pollution of our blue spaces

SOUTH AISLE

Climate Crafts

11 Knit and Natter

With researchers Sam Hampton and Tina Fawcett

12 Climate Stripes & Green Justice

Knit a 'climate stripe' and discuss climate justice and green criminology with researcher Linda Wystemp

BAR

B Lecture Theatre

See timed programme above

C The Climate cafe

Nick Banks Green Energy Households

Allanah Booth Algae Carbon sinks

Carolina Redolfi Marketing or Greenwash?

Farrin Alavi Architecture + green design

Lauren Baker Oxford Botanical Gardens seeds and sustainability

Amelia Rock Human Behavior, hope and climate

James Painter Climate Misinformation and the press

Oxford Net Zero Institute

Robin Hutchinson Insects + climate change

Oxford Climate Society Climate Emotions

D Westwood Room

Low Carbon Oxford

Art Therapy for Eco-Anxiety

The Cherwell Collective

Hogacre Ecopark

One Planet Abingdon

CLIMATE JUSTICE MUSEUM LATE NIGHT

Pitt Rivers Museum | Friday 6 June, 7–10pm

TIMED PROGRAMME

Seminar Room A

7pm to 8pm

Multaka Youth Club & Fusion Arts
Local Green Spaces photobooth activity

Lecture Room B

7pm to 9pm

Screening of the film Court for Intergenerational Climate Crimes: The British East India Company on Trial
Dutch artist and propaganda researcher Jonas Staal and Indian activist and lawyer Radha D'Souza. Commissioned by Serpentine, London and in collaboration with Framer Framed, Amsterdam, CREAM and Centre for Law, Development and Conflict Studies (University of Westminster)

Old Library

7.15 – 8.30pm C

Screening of film Itu Ninu by Itandehui Jensen
Followed by a talk by the director on migration, surveillance and sustainability (on the Clore balcony)

8.40 – 10pm D

*In Our Own Words: Screening of film Climate Criminals by Change Festival**
This film reveals the stories of UK activists convicted for their direct actions, followed by a Q&A with the film directors and activists on eco-anxiety, personal storytelling and the merits and dangers of taking direct climate action

**Pre-booked ticket required (<https://shorturl.at/xtfq3>).
If booked, please attend for duration of this screening.*

Clore Balcony (First Floor)

7.00 – 8.30pm F

Silent Vigil of the Free Political Prisoners Campaign
Dedicated to all imprisoned climate activists and land defenders worldwide

8.40 – 9.30pm C

Itandehui Jensen in conversation

Film-maker Itandehui Jansen, behind Itu Ninu (shown in Old Library at 7.15pm), speaks to Abdul Wahid Khan about sustainability, migration and the surveillance state

FLOOR PLANS

Pitt Rivers Museum

Ground Floor

First Floor

Second Floor

DROP-IN ACTIVITIES

Ground Floor

- 1 Festival Film Shorts (on loop)
The Tapestry of Hope by Tamarack Media
Woven Together by ClimArts
Come Gleaning by Empathy Media
Letters from the Future by Tamarack Media

- 2 Hawaii: Ma uka to Ma kai
Quilting the Hawaiian Landscape
Explore Hawaiian Traditional Ecological Knowledge and how people preserve the earth through preserving culture and sustainable practice.

 BAR

First Floor

- 3 Witness Stand for Climate Justice
Listen to the witness testimonies of the effects of climate change on island nations, from the South Pacific collective Witness Stand, who brought their testimonies before the International Court of Justice (ICJ).
- 4 Watch Witness Stand's short film What is Owed, on the totem screen nearby.

Second Floor

- 6 Young Lives Stand
A local research project investigating impact and resilience: experiencing the climate crisis in the Global South. Young lives photographs will be projected throughout the night onto the PRM ceiling
- E Ceiling Projection: Photography4Humanity and Young Lives
Photography exhibition by RHRN
Photography4Humanity: A lens on Climate Justice and photos from the Young Lives research project